Prophetic Voices Four Perspectives on Advent

Sunday Mornings December 1-22

Each week during Advent we will explore the Scriptures of the season from four different perspectives to see what each can teach us about the coming of the Christ into the world. Those four perspectives will come from the prophet Isaiah, John the Baptist, Mary, the mother of Jesus, and the angel who appeared to Joseph. Join us as we learn how these four voices can tell us what it means for us to live lives of expectation and hope as we await the advent of our Lord.
