Why I Believe in Peter Moon

As you certainly know by now, Bishop Sharma Lewis has projected the Rev. Dr. Peter Moon to be Reveille's new lead pastor. Pete currently is serving us as the Richmond District Superintendent, where he has served since 2015. Immediately prior to his cabinet work, he served for 12 years at Woodlake UMC, which is a large congregation in the Richmond District. Reveille also happens to be the church that sent Pete into ministry, as this was his church while he was a student at Union Presbyterian Seminary. Bishop Kern Eutsler baptized one of Pete's children in our sanctuary.

I have known Pete long enough that I cannot remember meeting him, at least 14 years. We served for six years together on the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. I once led a staff retreat for him while he was at Woodlake, and of course, he has been my District Superintendent for the last five years.

Throughout the time I have known Pete, I have always found him to be an excellent preacher, a decisive and empowering leader, and a warm, humble, thoughtful provider of pastoral care. I cannot overstate the extent to which his shepherding of the Richmond District has impacted, for the good, my ministry with you at Reveille.

Pete will serve Reveille exceptionally well. God has richly blessed us with this appointment. In fact, when Bishop Lewis asked me to join her Bishop's cabinet, I was emphatic that she give the utmost care to choosing my successor, and I have the fullest confidence that she has.

Please keep the Moons in your prayers during this time of transition, and be excited for what God has in store next.

*Peace,
Doug*

In 1988, he left the U.S Navy to attend Union Theological Seminary (now Union Presbyterian) in Richmond, entering the ministry while a member of Reveille UMC. Since then, he has served multiple appointments in Richmond, Fairfax, Farmville, Woodlake, and most recently as the Superintendent of the Richmond District. He has also completed his Doctorate of Ministry at Wesley Theological Seminary, specializing in church renewal and revival.

He and his wife Lynn have been married 32 years and have five children and three perfect grandchildren.

In his spare time, Pete enjoys running, cycling, woodworking, and fixing up old broken-down cars. When asked for a phrase that defines his ministry he replied, “In the person of Jesus Christ, there is no place where there is no hope...” He is a passionate believer in our God “who is able to do immeasurably more than we ask or imagine...” (Ephesians 3:20)

March 22 UMCOR Sunday

On the fourth Sunday in Lent, the United Methodist Church has a special offering for the United Methodist Committee on Relief. UMCOR provides major support for immediate assistance in the wake of natural and human-caused disasters. The program provides ongoing ministries of food, shelter, and health. UMCOR Sunday donations cover the agency’s administrative costs, allowing 100 percent of designated gifts to be used for a specified disaster response or ministry. Please give prayerfully and generously on March 22, using the envelope found in your bulletin.

The Spiritual Discipline of Giving

2020 Stewardship Campaign Update

Thank you for investing in the work God is doing through Reveille's ministries. As of February 23, 2020, Reveille has received 226 estimates of giving with a total commitment of over $1.19 million toward the $1.3 million commitment needed to fully fund our ministries in 2020.

In addition, Reveille's pledge fulfillment rate for 2019 was more than 100%. Your generosity as a congregation in 2019 and your commitment to continue that generosity in 2020 is a witness to your faith in Reveille and all that God does through our church.

Your ongoing support is helping our church advance toward our goal of a sustainable balanced budget by 2022 while maintaining our worship, study, and service opportunities for the congregation and community.

If you have not made your formal commitment of support for 2020 yet, there is still time! During this season of Lent, returning an annual estimate of giving is one way you can practice the spiritual discipline of giving. Please visit www.reveilleumc.org/estimate to quickly and confidentially complete yours today or pick up an estimate of giving card in the church or church office.

February 25 Meeting Council Column

At the Church Council meeting on February 25, the Council approved the nomination of Rich Schweiker as Church Council chair. Rich succeeds Kevin Bruny who recently stepped down.

The meeting discussion revolved around the Council's 2020 areas of focus, including:

Strategies to increase worship attendance:

- The Point service will soon have a different preacher than the 8:30 and 11:00 am services. This will allow greater flexibility for our clergy to engage with members and teach during the Sunday school hour. Preaching at The Point will rotate among Reveille's three clergy.

- From August 2 through September 6, the regular 8:30 and 11:00 am services will continue, but combined Sunday school will meet at 9:30 am in the fellowship hall, with music from CrossPoint each week.
- Middle school participation in youth ministries
- Several initiatives are underway to address declining middle school participation, including high school "buddies" for middle schoolers and transition events for fifth graders.

The Council encourages all members to complete the spiritual gifts assessment. See page 14 for details.

The approved October 2019 Church Council minutes are now available. To review the document, please send a request to Terri Edwards, admindirector@reveilleumc.org. The approved February meeting minutes will be available following the next Council meeting.

The Psalms: Scripture for Praying and Singing

Daniel Banke will offer a three-week study on The Psalms in the Logos Class, Sunday, March 15, 22, and 29, 9:30-10:30 am, in room 209. No registration is required and the study is open to all. The Psalms are most authentically experienced as prayer, specifically, sung prayer, and Daniel will guide the class into a prayerful experience through musical settings of Psalms. While biblical Psalms display nearly every human emotion, there are essentially three overarching categories on which the class will focus, reflecting a threefold rhythm of life that we as faithful people consistently go through:

March 15: Psalms of Praise (Orientation)

We praise God merely because of who God is.

March 22: Psalms of Lament and Trust (Disorientation)

During times of despair, we lament to the God who we trust is listening to us.

March 29: Psalms of Thanksgiving (Reorientation)

After experiencing hard times, we thank God for bringing us out of the pit of despair.

Thank You Youth Ministry

Thank you so much for making Swansboro Elementary the focus of Reveille's youth group on February 9. The 100 hygiene kits the youth prepared for the third to fifth grade students will be distributed as they learn about hygiene from their teachers at the school. I think the bags were packed in 15 minutes! Reveille's facilities were set up perfect with supplies, tables, and equipment for Ellen Ficker's presentation.

Ellen did a great job describing her role as CIS coordinator and how Reveille is helping support her work. Thank you to Linda Gill for gathering the supplies plus taking photos of the event. Claire Kaugars helped us pull together toothpaste for all the kits, too. Andy Glascott, your comments were inspiring with Mother's Teresa's quote, "Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love." We'll look for more opportunities for our youth to participate in Swansboro ministries during the coming year. Their involvement in serving others is welcome.

Faith, Hope, and Love Celebrated

with our Swansboro Partner Churches

On the first three Wednesdays of February, members from Reveille, Koinonia Christian Church, and Love Center of Unity Full Gospel Church International gathered together for a fellowship meal and a time of joint worship. A planning group of clergy and laity from all three churches worked together to plan this worship series. Each service included colorful threads from each congregation that were woven together into a beautiful tapestry that celebrated faith the first week, hope the second week, and love the third week.

When we passed the peace during our third service, I moved around the chapel embracing brothers and sisters in Christ from all three congregations who have become my dear friends. The passing of the peace was a joyful time that displayed the love our congregations have developed as our partnership in ministry has grown over the last seven years. I reflected on how appropriate the worship themes of faith, hope, and love were, and how beautifully they have been lived out by everyone present. As LCU's Kiana Bradford reflected in her sermon, "Love wraps all of us together."

A Barmy Army

They say an army marches on its stomach. In England, the phrase barmy army is used in a lot of sporting arenas, but particularly with the England Cricket team. Check out the page on Wikipedia (www.en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Barmy_Army) about that group of keen supporters. In English slang barmy can mean crazy, nuts, daft, etc. and it's often said you need to be a little barmy to go into youth ministry full time.

The youth ministry "army" may not march on its stomach, and while there is an element of barmy about some of us (pauses to look in the mirror...), everything we do is only possible thanks to the army of volunteers who get involved in youth ministry, either for a one-off activity or on a weekly basis. As we prepare for the New York trip this summer we have 10 adults lined up to travel. There were four of us on the ski retreat, and on any given Sunday there are between six and eight adults across youth Sunday school and youth group. The opportunities are definitely out there for adult involvement in youth ministry.

Is it challenging? Yes. Does it help you grow in your faith, both by serving and searching alongside teenagers? Yes. Is it filled with fun and games, as well as serious and deep conversations? Yes. Do you need to be particularly trained or gifted? No. Do you need to be slightly barmy? No, but sometimes it does help! Do you need to simply be you and be present? Yes.

There is no "secret" to volunteering in youth ministry, no magic formula, other than being yourself, being present and being open about your faith, including when appropriate, your struggles to follow Christ.

So while I do want to thank the two dozen or so folks I can think of who have been or will be involved in my first 12 months here at Reville (by the time we get back from NYC), I do also want to extend an invitation to more of you to get involved. Whether it be on a one-off visit or regular involvement, get in touch. Let me buy you a coffee and chat. No commitment, no barmy required.

*Grace and peace to you in Christ,
Andy Glascott*

Rainbow at Reveille

After several early morning emails saying “yes, we’re walking - it’s not raining” and “no, we’re not walking because it’s raining” we decided to walk!

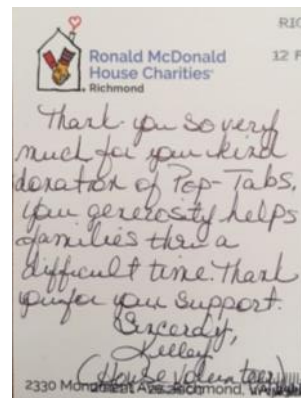

When I arrived at Reveille, Bob Downs and jet Burton convinced me it wasn’t going to rain during the walk and they were right. It turned out to be a great day for a morning walk, and when we returned to Reveille, a beautiful rainbow appeared. God is always near.
