

The Garth at Reveille United Methodist Church Terms and Conditions

Definitions:

"Donor" shall include the person requesting placement of cremains and all persons permitted to succeed to Donor's interest pursuant to paragraph 9, below.

"The Church" shall include the employees and agents of Reveille United Methodist Church, Richmond, Virginia.

"Designee" shall mean that person whose cremains are to be placed in THE GARTH AT REVEILLE.

"Cremains" are cremated human ashes.

The terms and conditions of the agreement between Church and Donor are as follows:

- 1) Custody and control of THE GARTH AT REVEILLE and matters relating thereto are and shall be vested in all respects in the Garth Administrative Committee of The Church as duly constituted from time to time. The Garth Administrative Committee works in partnership with Church Council, church staff, and general church leadership to further the Christian goals and mission of Reveille United Methodist Church.
- 2) THE GARTH AT REVEILLE is for the use of members or former members of The Church and their immediate families. Any questions of eligibility for placement of cremains in THE GARTH AT REVEILLE will be determined by the Garth Administrative Committee.
- 3) In return for a Donation, Donor receives only the following rights under the agreement:
 - a) The placement of the cremains of Designee are either interred in a biodegradable container provided by The Church (preferred) or scattered on the earth.
 - b) If desired, a nameplate engraved with the full name and dates of birth and death of Designee will be provided by The Church and will be placed on an honorarium wall in The Church.
 - c) No property right of any kind in THE GARTH AT REVEILLE is or shall be acquired by or through the donation. Except for the nameplate provided by The Church, no markers, individual plantings, or floral arrangements will be permitted within THE GARTH AT REVEILLE.
 - d) Future memorial donations may be made to The Garth Memorial Fund in memory of individuals interred in Garth Memorial Garden for perpetual care of the interment site and continuing maintenance of THE GARTH AT REVEILLE.
- 4) No Donor, Designee, or person shall have any right, expectation, or cause of action against The Church concerning the physical location, maintenance, security, or appearance of THE GARTH AT REVEILLE. THE GARTH AT REVEILLE may be discontinued or relocated to another appropriate place as the Garth Administrative Committee and Board of Trustees, in their sole discretion, may deem proper, without incurring any liability or obligation resulting from the loss or disturbance of, or damage to, the cremains of any person placed in THE GARTH AT REVEILLE.

- 5) Donor agrees and understands that Designee's cremains will be placed directly in or scattered on the earth and will not be recoverable or preserved intact.
- 6) Donor understands that the GARTH MEMORIAL GARDEN is used for many purposes, and will continue to be so used.
- 7) Donor's donation hereunder is made without any reservations, conditions, or restrictions, and may be used for perpetual care of the cremains, the long-term maintenance of the gardens in THE GARTH AT REVEILLE, and any lawful purpose deemed proper by The Garth Administrative Committee.
- 8) The Garth Administrative Committee may periodically make revisions to the rules and regulations governing the use and maintenance of THE GARTH AT REVEILLE. If it's the judgment of the Garth Administrative Committee, such action is desirable, they will amend, by revision, the terms and conditions of this agreement with respect to the donation, use, operation, and maintenance of THE GARTH AT REVEILLE.
- 9) No assignment of the Donor's rights under this agreement, whether voluntary or by operation of law, shall be made or be effective without the prior written consent of the Garth Administrative Committee in its sole discretion.
- 10) Donor may change the Designee only with the written consent of the Garth Administrative Committee.
- 11) This agreement represents the full agreement of the parties. There are no other agreements, written or oral, between The Church and Donor relating to the use of THE GARTH AT REVEILLE.
- 12) No amendments to this agreement shall be effective unless in writing and signed by Donor and Chair of the Garth Administrative Committee. All items and conditions hereof, all amendments hereto, and all rules and regulations made pursuant hereto, shall apply to and be binding upon Donor.
